Road in Wretched Condition. The macadam road betreen here and Yantic is in a very poor condition. A short time ago the selectmen, acting under instructions from an assistant from the state highway commissioner's office carted a lot of gravel on the road, filling in a number of washouts, improving the road for the time being, but the rains of the fore part of this week have made the road worse than ever, for horses went up to their knees in the mud, and the cold spell following has made traveling so rough that an auto party going at fair speed through the village one night this week lost the rims, shoe and tire of their automobile, and apparently did not miss them, owing to the rough condition of the road. The rims, shoe, etc., were picked up in the road the following morning. from the state highway commissioner's
